

English Department
Emory University

Required Initial Major-Advisor Meeting

In order to pre-register, students who have newly declared an English Major must submit this form signed by both themselves and their advisors before registration begins. Majors who do not do so may be locked out of pre-registration for the following semester.

_____ has seen her/his advisor
(Please print student name)

_____ to discuss the English major.
(Please print advisor name)

Possible areas of concentration that this student might pursue include the following (please list at least two):

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

The above are merely possibilities and do not commit the student to any one concentration. However, English Majors are required to have confirmed their final choice of concentration by the end of their Junior year. Majors who do not do so may be locked out of pre-registration for the following semester.

Student's signature: _____ class of _____ date _____

Advisors signature: _____ date _____

Please return the completed form to Len Cassamas, English Department office, Callaway Memorial Bldg., Rm. N302.